

Elk Haven Equestrian Center

Facility rules: Please read carefully

- There will be no use of this facility without first obtaining permission and reservations from property owner(s), signing a release, and having familiarized yourself with the terrain and any hazards.
- All riders under the age of eighteen and all English riders must wear an approved safety helmet with harness while riding. EHEC strongly encourages all riders to wear helmets.
- All riders must wear boots or shoes with a heel while riding.
- All riders must maintain control of the horse(s) at all times and ride within their and their horse's ability.
- All tack and equipment must be in safe operational condition.
- No horse may be turned loose in any area at any time (including arenas) except their own paddock or stall.
- No smoking, anywhere, anytime. (Elk Haven Equestrian is in an extreme forest fire danger area and the pleasure of your cigarette may cost the forest critters and us our livelihoods. Please discuss this with us if this is a problem.)
- Open fires including campfires are not permitted. Forest fire dangers are too great.
- No pets. If you need a pet we will loan you one. This facility is a wild life sanctuary.
- It is your responsibility to clean up after yourself and your horse. No manure, hay, litter is to be left in the road, parking or camping areas. Please note designated dumpsites. You are our guests on our private working farm, please treat the land and us with respect.
- Please park in designated areas. See map.
- Children are to be supervised at all times.
- No motorized vehicles on trails.
- No riding double.
- No riding in the hay fields. Again this is a working farm.
- CAUTION: Sprinkler systems are aluminum pipe that CANNOT be driven on or stepped on by horses. Persons driving over the pipes will be assessed $100.
- To keep the area pristine, we have minimized signage, so though not posted, speed limit is 10 mph or less for everyone's safety and peace of mind.
- Elk Haven Equestrian Center is closed between 10:00 PM and 6:00 AM and no horses will be allowed in or out during this time period unless prior arrangement is made in advance.
